Jackie Update

Jackie would like to say a huge thank you to everyone for their very kind words, cards and thoughts. You have all helped enormously on her road to recovery. For those who may not have heard and are slightly confused by this, unfortunately Jackie had a heart attack on the 4th November. The emergency services were called upon, who then asked for an Air Ambulance. She was then flown to Southampton Hospital at 2am and was immediately operated on and a stent inserted. The family are absolutely amazed and enormously grateful to the emergency services and the incredible service and care that Jackie received that night and beyond. We hugely thank everyone involved in the whole process. Tisbury to Southampton in 7 minutes. Amazing!!

Jackie is now slowly recovering and almost able to drive again. We will not see her in the shop for some time, but she is being fully updated on all our news!! Meanwhile the shop is still fully functioning under the amazing help of Esme and Ellie, who have both been absolute stars in this difficult time and to Gilbert who has been helping us with all the outside chores.

The Air Ambulance is one of the charities that we have supported in the shop for many years, especially last year with the Crop circle. Needless to say our famous Christmas cake raffle will be for the Air Ambulance! So if anyone wants a chance to win one of our 12 Christmas cakes then please grab a raffle ticket from the counter!!
THANK YOU!!!

Ansty Kitchen

The kitchen is in over drive at the mo! Fresh bread is still being lovingly baked on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Mince pies are a daily bake. We have made over 1000 already!! The "free" guess how many mince pies will K make this Christmas competition has re opened for the 2017 festive season! Please enter in the Farm Shop! You've guessed it the winner gets mince pies!! The heavily/heavenly brandy soaked Christmas cakes are now ready! The mincemeat and shortbread slice is a real winner on the taste buds!! Roulades are constantly coming out of the oven: chocolate & cherries in brandy cream, lemon & raspberry and our gold finalist winner – the roast almond, amaretti & raspberry meringue roulade. Soups are whizzing out – in the shop and the tea room: Asparagus & sweet potato, onion squash soup with orange and ginger and mushroom, etc. Ham and mushroom quiche is in the freezer, plus cauliflower cheese, braised red cabbage and chocolate rum truffle tortes. Yum!!

New additions to the kitchen team!

– no not the men!!

Merlin has now joined our family of kitchen machines. He is much bigger than our current mixer, Winston II, as can be seen by the bowl sizes!! Merlin will help us keep up with the increase in bread making quantities! We also welcome our new (second hand) oven, which will work along side Merlin!!

We are loving this new local chutney. Definitely worth a try this Christmas.
